

The Vidant Medical Center and East Carolina University EMS Fellowship provides a flexible prehospital medical education with plenty of opportunity for customized curriculum.

Roberto C. Portela, MD, FACEP, FAEMS
Fellowship Program Director
Clinical Assistant Professor

EMS Faculty

Joanna Adams, MD
Assistant Program Director

Matthew Chovaz, MD
Bryan Kitch, MD, FAEMS
Juan March, MD, FAEMS
Emilie Pendley, MD
David Thomson, MD, FAEMS
Stephen Taylor, Paramedic, FAEMS
Andrew Bouland, MD
Nathan Roney, MD

STAFF

Lisa Pennypacker
Program Coordinator

The applicant must:

- Be eligible for an unrestricted North Carolina medical license
- Be eligible for an unrestricted North Carolina driver's license
- Be BE/BC in Emergency Medicine

To apply please send a cover letter, 3 letters of recommendation and a current CV to:

Roberto C. Portela, MD, FACEP, FAEMS
Fellowship Program Director
Department of Emergency Medicine
East Carolina University
600 Moye Blvd
VMC 3ED-300
Greenville, NC 27834
portelar@ecu.edu

EMS Fellowship

Excellence in EMS

Vidant Medical Center and East Carolina University offers a one-year fully ACGME accredited program that covers the core content of EMS utilizing various activities:

- Monthly didactics and journal clubs
- Dedicated take-home ALS response vehicle
- Multiple mass gathering events
- EMS research opportunities with support staff
 - Study site for Prehospital Airway Control Trial - "LITES network"
- Simulation training
- Fire-Based, Third Service and Critical Care transport agencies
- AHA Mission Lifeline Gold Plus recognition for the last 5 years

EMS Fellow will be appointed as a Clinical Instructor at East Carolina University

Clinical sites include:

Vidant Medical Center (VMC)

- Primary teaching hospital for ECU Brody School of Medicine with 981 total beds serving an estimated 1.4 million people
- 125,000 ED visits per year
- Level I Adult Trauma, Level II Pediatric Trauma, Comprehensive Stroke, and PCI facility
- 66 ED beds and stand-alone fast track
- 16 bed Children's ED

Vidant Beaufort Hospital

- Full service community hospital with 16 ED beds

Outer Banks Hospital

- Community hospital in Nags Head, Dare County

Program Highlights & Opportunities

Our EMS professionals offer a wide range of services, from quality management and medical direction initiatives to course work in numerous areas of EMS education.

- Well established EMS fellowship (1980's)
- EMS Medical Direction
- Dedicated physician response vehicle
- Experience in rural, suburban and urban EMS
- Air & Ground Critical Care with Vidant EastCare
 - About 7,000 total transports per year
 - About 3,500 helicopter transports per year
 - 7 aircraft located in 5 different bases
 - CAMTS accredited
- State Medical Assistance Team involvement
 - Airshow at Seymour Johnson Air Force
 - Airshow at Cherry Point MCAS
- Special Events Medical Care
 - ECU Football game medical care
 - Local area events
- EMS Medical Advisor for various area community colleges
- Hurricane preparedness and response

